

Journey.....counseling and consultation

Statement of Client's Rights

In an effort to protect your rights as a client of “Journey.....counseling and consultation” (JCC) you will have the following assurances:

- 1) Informed consent shall be obtained from clients, or from parents/guardians of minor children, for participation in any treatment procedure. Education demonstration activities involving any use of audio-visual equipment or 2 way mirrors will not be used without prior permission and the client's knowledge.
- 2) All information obtained from or about clients shall be kept confidential (see “Notices of Privacy Practices” document) and not be released or disclosed to anyone else without written consent, except for disclosures required by law, valid material and psychological emergencies, or for accrediting purposes.

In addition, clients of JCC have the following rights:

- 1) The right to be treated with consideration, dignity and respect
- 2) The right to treatment on the basis of need
- 3) The right to receive treatment in the least restrictive setting
- 4) The right to be fully informed about services provided, recommended treatment, and outcome plans for such treatment.
- 5) The right to participate in the development, implementation, and the evaluation of treatment outcomes
- 6) The right to make choices about participation in treatment and research (such as statistics/data gathering for the purpose of improving service)
- 7) The right to have a statement which outlines the services being offered
- 8) The right to end treatment services voluntarily and without repercussion
- 9) The right to a plan for continuity of care (referral) as part of the process for ending services with JCC

Client's or Parent/Guardian's Signature

Date

Witness/Counselor's Signature

Date