

Transparenting

(sometimes referred to as “Children in the Middle”)

“Transparenting” is a four hour educational class designed to address issues that are often present and problematic in families going through the difficult life transition of separation/divorce. It is offered to support the efforts of parents in being especially sensitive to the needs of their children through this difficult time in their lives.

When: First Saturday of each month, unless it falls on a holiday weekend. It will then be moved back to the following Saturday (e.g., one week later).

Where: Office of Journey Counseling and Consultation: 113 Colorado Ave., Suite 111, Ames, Iowa 50014 (in the same building as Pammel Grocery)

Time Frame: 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Fee: $40 per person (cash or money order). Fee may be paid on the day of the class. [Checks not accepted].

Note: This class is offered for parents only. There is no child care provided, and there is no location at the office for children to wait. Therefore, you must make arrangements for this in some other manner. Also, please notify the trainer of any “restraining order”/ no contact order” issues.
